

OUR MISSION: IMPROVE THE QUALITY OF LIFE IN OUR COMMUNITY BY PROMOTING AND ACHIEVING LITERACY

THE NEED

17.5% of the 15,366 babies born in Palm Beach County in 2022 were to mothers who had not graduated from high school.

43% of our third graders read below grade level.

22.2% of adults age 16 or older in Palm Beach County lack basic literacy skills.

33.8% of residents age five or older speak a language other than English.

The Coalition provides 8 programs countywide to help individuals improve their literacy skills and is active in the National Campaign for Grade Level Reading to help children learn to read so they may read to learn.

CHILDREN'S LITERACY

Building Better Readers

Recruits and trains volunteers who provide one-to-one reading tutoring for children at elementary schools and the Literacy Center.

Early Literacy Book Distribution

Partners with pediatricians and healthcare partners to provide books and advice to parents about reading to their children.

Read→Create→Connect

Educates children in after school programs and summer camps through a literature based, social-emotional learning program.

Stories and STEM

Uses children's literature and hands-on activities to teach science, technology, engineering and math lessons in afterschool programs and summer camps.

LITERACY AMERICORPS

Up to 30 members giving 47,600 hours of tutoring, mentoring and coaching to children, teens and adults.

COMMUNITY INITIATIVES

Read Together Palm Beach County

Our one-book, one-community campaign, in which adults read the same book and gather to discuss the key themes in book discussions and in book clubs.

Read for the Record Palm Beach County

The Coalition coordinates hundreds of volunteers and municipal leaders each year to read a high-quality chosen book to thousands of children on the same day.

OUR IMPACT IN PALM BEACH COUNTY

The Literacy Coalition of Palm Beach County is dedicated to ensuring that individuals receive the help they need to develop or improve their literacy skills. Annually, we provide services to 64,464 adults, teens, children and families through eight programs at 173 sites from Jupiter to Boca Raton to Belle Glade. We provide literacy instruction in family education programs and at workplace or community sites. Our Literacy

AmeriCorps members teach, tutor, mentor and provide homework help in libraries, schools and nonprofit agencies. Our work with children includes collaborating with pediatricians who advise parents about the importance of reading with their children. We recruit, train and support volunteers who tutor children that are struggling readers and we teach literature-based, activity-driven curriculums in afterschool programs and summer camps.
